curiosity shop

All paintings were created on the land of the Cammeraygal people and are being exhibited on the land of the Gadigal and Wangal peoples of the Eora Nation.

'curiosity shop' presents new and archival work by Claire Engkaninan Low, spanning multiple years of practice. It includes new moths in her popular 'Winged Treasures' series, still life works, watercolours, experiments, paper goods and two of her published short stories as they appear in the Castle of Horror anthologies. Beer generously supplied by Yulli's Brews.

About the artist: Claire Engkaninan Low is an award-winning artist whose most acclaimed works focus on sustainability and her Asian-Australian identity. Claire won the Reused/Recycled Materials Award in the Reimagine Art Prize in 2023 and has been a finalist for the National Emerging Art Prize and the North Sydney Art Prize. Claire won the People's Choice in City of Ryde's Sustainable Waste to Art Prize 2024. She also won the E. G. Harvey Award for Australian Speculative Fiction Art in 2025.
